Birthdays & Anniversaries: 26th - Cindy Farless

 BACK TO SCHOOL This week we explored some fascinating background to Jeremiah – about Assyrians and Babylonians. Do you know why they're important? Make it a new discipline in your discipleship: to delve into the sacred texts that have changed the world. Go on, feed your mind and your soul. You won't regret it.

My thanks to those few who've now "stepped forward" to help with the livestream. Will others follow their example? Will you?

Children: Don't forget to open the next "window" on your Look to the Cross Advent Lenten calendar.

Theme: CAPTURING HUMAN HEARTS

Church is boring: Yes or no? Being a Christian is boring: yes or no? Jesus is boring: yes or no? Dare I say it, but I wouldn't be surprised if at least some of you – especially if you're young – answered yes to the first question, and maybe even to the second. But the last one? And how do you think nonbelievers would have responded? But in John, today, we see how the Savior captured the attention of strangers; even in crowded, noisy places He stood out. Why?

Here's some handy space for a few notes:

Next Steps: Share Jesus with someone who hasn't met Him.

Pray, talk, do. To me if you like: Tues.-Sat., 0700-1400.
